The applica-tion of Fred M. Tout and that of A. Work and Juhn Gustason for re tail licenses were not considered, as the applications were filed too late for notice for the hearing. Judge Howell stated, however, that the delay in making the applications was not the fault of the applicants and that notice would be shortened to Friday morning, when the matter would be given attention.

As a further precaution, Turkey stipulated that the Dedegahatch railroad should not be turned over to Bulgaria until October 6, leaving fourteen days for Bulgarian mobilization. The territory will not be ceded until October 11 so that Turkey and Germany may see what disposition is made of the Bulgarian army. Mean-while, the Matin declares, the Germans are in command at Sofia as at Constantinople and the Teutonic minister is reported to have expressed deep indignation because the strategrailroad to Lom-Palanka, on the Danube, had not been completed.

Editor Standard: We wish to call attention to the mis-statements made veral times in the Ogden Examiner to the effect that the Third ward delegates were driven to support M. L. We wish to state that we were delegates from the Phird ward and that the statements made by the Examiner are positively false. Heralded as the first real Pantages oad show to play Ogden this season the new bill that opens at the Orpheum tomorrow afternoon has been praised by the large Salt Lake audiences as being the best vaudeville bill seen in any house during the en tire season. The headline act is Edmund Hayes in the screamingly funny farce, "The Piano Movers." Mr. Hayes is one of those comedians whose every line is a laugh and his act is one long continuous laugh. The second extra big feature is the Royal stars from the Lombardi Opera company, in gems from grand operas. Another novel feature is the Five Juggling Mowatts in feats of skill in club juggling. When it comes to ragtime Belle Oliver carries off all honors. She has proven herself the queen of syncopated music. Dorsch and Russell, "The Musical Railroaders," offer musical act that is novel and out of the ordinary, John P. Read "The Minstrel Man," provides a lot of merriment on the bill with his blackface comedy. To complete the bill the Pathe News offer some most interesting news. There will be the usual three shows daily, 3, 7:30 and 9:15 p. m. This is one vaudeville show that everybody in Ogden should see -(Advertisement).
